Wild Buckhorn Bill Wins Iowa State SASS Championship!

The WWWB's very own Wild Buckhorn Bill brought home the buckle at this year's Ambush on the Prairie, the Iowa State SASS Championship put on by the Turkey Foot Cowboys in Evansdale, Iowa. While he considers the Western Wisconsin Wild Bunch his "home" club, he lives in Iowa and took top honors for the state. The match was well-attended by the WWWB, with Flyen Doc Koyote winning the 49er category, Unholy Ghost taking 2nd in Gunfighter, and Mockingbird winning the Wrangler category and overall top gun. The match was very well-run, as expected from past years, but boy was it HOT! If you can free up the first weekend of August in 2011, make the trip! Note that the Iowa state match is migrating to Indianola and the Shoot-out at Coyote Gulch in June of 2011.

Fire in the Hills Christens New Range With a Bang!

The Wisconsin Old West Shootists (WOWS) held their first Fire in the Hills at their beautiful new range in late-August, and a good time was had by all. The match overall top guns were the WWWB's Misty Blue Montana on the ladies' side and Timber Jack Thompson for the men, or at least the men in kilts. Flyen Doc shot frontier cartridge gunfighter and inspired a groundswell of support for it at Fandango this year, while Unholy Ghost took top honors in regular Gunfighter. WOWS has turned a pasture into a well-groomed range in less than a year and next year will be hosting the 2011 Wisconsin State SASS Championship, so ride north the next chance you get and check out their new range.
